Leaders of Tomorrow (LOT) Program Dress Code

The Leaders of Tomorrow Program, sponsored by the National Black MBA Association, Inc. – New Jersey Chapter has implemented the following dress code to ensure a suitable environment for all students and to comply with health and safety standards. Also, the appropriate dress for the program day contributes to students to acting in a manner which produces a higher standard for educational activities and personal behavior that is representative of members of the Leaders of Tomorrow (LOT) Program.

Student dress must conform to the following rules:

1. Shorts and skirts (including the splits in skirts) may be worn as long as they are no shorter than four inches above the knee.
2. Sleep pants or pajamas/pajama pants, tennis shorts, athletic short, gym shorts, muscle shirts, cycling shorts or outer clothing made of micro fiber are not acceptable.
3. Bare feet or house shoes are not permitted.
4. Pants worn below hips and buttocks are not acceptable.
5. Shirts and blouses must be long enough to prevent exposure of the midsection when arms are raised above the head.
6. Any apparel that advertises or implies sex, drugs, alcohol, gangs, profanity, violence or illicit behavior is not permitted.
7. Transparent clothing, halter-tops, tops with straps less than an inch wide are not permitted.
8. Clothing with rips, tears, or holes is not permitted.
9. Sunglasses or glasses with dark tint are not allowed in the building without proper medical documentation on file.
10. No "headwear" is permitted, including, but not limited to caps, hats, hair picks, combs, hairnets, stocking caps, doo rags, toboggans, headbands, scarves and bandanas.

The Leadership Team, which includes the sponsoring organization's leadership, Program Director, Mentors, and Parent Volunteers will ask Leaders to change their dress if it violates any of the above rules and/or causes a distraction or disruption of the program. Items deemed inappropriate will be brought to the parent's attention for corrective action. Continued violations of the dress code can lead to suspension or expulsion from the program.

By signing below you acknowledge your understanding of these rules and agree to follow them.
